Dear Chairman Powell:

I am dismayed at the proposed changes in the Communications Act.

The revised Act will allow ownership to be concentrated in even fewer hands—in total disregard of the fact that the people own the airways.

In a democracy, many voices need to be heard, not just those of the rich and powerful.

The concentration of power in this country is appalling, and the FCC should be protecting us from that concentration, not encouraging it.

I am opposed to the relaxing of ownership rules.

Sincerely,

Hildegard Hannum
